

Since the FCC is trying to encourage the transition to HDTV it seems counter productive that they allow an HDTV sports broadcast to be blacked out due to a local station's analog broadcast.